(f) To do all such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects. provided that the Institute shall not impose on its Members, or support with its funds any regulation the enforcing of which could not properly be an object of the Company registered under The Companies Act of 1862 and 1867.

4. The income and property of the Association, whence-soever derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Association, as set forth in this Memorandum of Association, and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus, or otherwise howsoever, by way of profit to the Members of the Association, provided that nothing herein shall prevent the payment, in good faith, of remuneration to any officers or servants of the Association, or to any Member of the Association or other person, in return for any services actually rendered to the Association.

5. The fourth paragraph of this Memorandum is a condition on which a licence is granted by the Board of Trade to the Association in pursuance of Section 23 of "The Companies Act, 1867."

6. If any Member of the Association pays or receives any dividend, bonus or other profit, in contravention of the terms of the fourth paragraph of this Memorandum, his liability shall be unlimited.

8. If, upon the winding up or dissolution of the Association there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to, or distributed among the Members of the Association, but shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions having objects similar to the objects of the Association, to be determined by the Members of the Association, at or before the time of dissolution, or, in default thereof, by such Judge of the High Court of Justice as may have or acquire jurisdiction in the matter.
